Tax File Number

Accounts earning interest are subject to Tax File Number (TFN) legislation. It is not compulsory for you to provide your TFN. However, if you are an Australian resident and you choose not to provide your TFN or Australian Business Number (ABN), or a TFN exemption has not been supplied, the Bank must deduct tax calculated at the highest marginal tax rate, plus the Medicare levy, from the interest earned. Please also note that you do not need to inform us of your ABN if you have already provided it to us.

Declaration

I / we have read the whole of this application and certify that the information contained in it is correct and complete. I / we acknowledge having received a copy of the product disclosure statement (PDS) that applies to this account, and accept those terms. The Bank may charge to this or any other account I / we may conduct with the Bank or recover from me / us any bank fees, government charges, taxes or duties imposed on transactions on / or which relate to my / our account(s).

Joint Accounts

Where any one signatory is authorised to operate the account, we acknowledge that subject to the conditions of use of the account from time to time any one of us may withdraw from the account, endorse cheques lodged for the credit of the accounts, operate the account (including by card access or other electronic means if applicable) or close the account. That the authority will remain in force until the Bank receives instructions to the contrary signed by any one of us. If an account holder dies, the Bank may consider the account is owned by the surviving account holder(s). The Bank will be free from all responsibility in paying any money to the survivor(s).
