Section Five -Tax File Number

Accounts earning interest are subject to Tax File Number (TFN) legislation. It is not compulsory for you to provide your TFN. However, if you are an Australian resident and you choose not to provide your TFN or Australian Business Number (ABN), or a TFN exemption has not been supplied, the Bank must deduct tax calculated at the highest marginal tax rate, plus the Medicare levy, from the interest earned. Please also note that you do not need to inform us of your ABN if you have already provided it to us.

Definitions

Note: These are only summaries of defined terms selected to assist with the completion of this form. Further details can be found in the OECD "Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information" (CRS), the associated Commentary to the CRS, the intergovernmental -Agreement (IGA) between the United States (U.S.) and the Australian Government and related Guidance material published on the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) website www.ato.gov.au/General/International-tax-agreements/In-detail/International-arrangements.

Active NFE - A non financial entity (NFE) is classified Active if it meets the criteria of an Active NFE determined by the CRS and FATCA. In summary, those criteria refer to:

- active by reason of income and assets;
- publicly traded NFE;
- governmental entities, International Organisations, Central Banks or their wholly owned Entities;
- holding NFEs that are members of a nonfinancial group;
- start-up NFEs;
- NFEs that are liquidating or emerging from bankruptcy;
- treasury centres that are members of a nonfinancial group; or
- non profit NFEs.

A non-profit NFE will be classified as an Active NFE if it meets any of the following criteria:

- (i) it is established and operated in its jurisdiction of residence exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, artistic, cultural, athletic, or educational purposes; or it is established and operated in its jurisdiction of residence and it is a professional organisation, business league, chamber of commerce, labour organisation, agricultural or horticultural organisation, civic league or an organisation operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare;
- (ii) it is exempt from income tax in its jurisdiction of residence;
- (iii) it has no shareholders or members who have a proprietary or beneficial interest in its income or assets;
- (iv) the applicable laws of the NFE's jurisdiction of residence or the NFE's formation documents do not permit any income or assets of the NFE to be distributed to, or applied for the benefit of, a private person or non-charitable Entity other than pursuant to the conduct of the NFE's charitable activities, or as payment of reasonable compensation for services rendered, or as payment representing the fair market value of property which the NFE has purchased: and
- (v) the applicable laws of the NFE's jurisdiction of residence or the NFE's formation documents require that upon the NFE's liquidation or dissolution, all of its assets be distributed to a Governmental Entity or other non-profit organisation, or escheat to the government of the NFE's jurisdiction of residence or any political subdivision.

Controlling Person is any natural person exercising ultimate effective control over the entity including through a chain of control or ownership typically on the basis of certain percentage (e.g. 25%) in the entity. The settlor(s), the trustee(s), the protectors) if any, trust beneficiary(ies) or member(s) of class of beneficiaries in the trust, who have received income distribution or are entitled to receive income distribution from the trust in the past year are always treated as Controlling Persons of a trust regardless of whether or not any of them exercise control over the activities of the trust.

Financial Institution means a Custodial Institution, a Depository Institution, an Investment Entity, or a Specified Insurance Entity.

- a. The term "Custodial Institution" means any Entity that holds, as a substantial portion of its business, financial assets for the account of others.
- b. The term "Depository Institution" means any Entity that accepts deposits in the ordinary course of a banking or other similar investments of funds and in addition to that activity also regularly engages in one or more of the following activities:
 - makes personal, mortgage, industrial or other loans or provides other extensions of credit purchases, sells, discounts or negotiates accounts receivable, instalment obligations, notes, drafts, cheques, bills of exchange, acceptances or other evidences of indebtedness
 - o issues letters of credit and negotiates drafts drawn under them
 - o provides trust or fiduciary services
 - o finances foreign exchange transactions, or
 - o enters into, purchases or disposes of finance leases or leased assets.
- c. The term "Investment Entity" means any Entity
 - a) that primarily conducts as a business one or more of the following activities or operations for or on behalf of a customer:
 - i. trading in money market instruments (cheques, bills, certificates of deposit, derivatives, etc.); foreign exchange; exchange, interest rate and index instruments; transferable securities; or commodity futures trading;
 - ii. individual and collective portfolio management; or
 - iii. otherwise investing, administering, or managing Financial Assets or money on behalf of other persons; or,
 - b) the gross income of which is primarily attributable to investing, reinvesting, or trading in Financial Assets, if the Entity is managed by another Entity that is a Depository Institution, a Custodial Institution, a Specified Insurance Entity, or an Investment Entity described in subparagraph (a).

Small passive investment vehicles, such as family trust and personal investment companies that are not managed by professional trustees or fund managers are not likely to be financial institutions. If you are unsure if your entity falls within the definition of a financial institution, you should seek your own tax advice.

d. The term "Specified Insurance Entity" means any Entity that is an insurance entity (or the holding entity of an insurance entity) that issues, or is obligated to make payments with respect to, a Cash Value Insurance Contract or an Annuity Contract.

- Passive entity includes a non-trading investment entity that earns 50% or more of its gross income from passive income such as dividends, interests, rents and royalties (other than rents and royalties derived in the active conduct of a business conducted at least in part by employees of the Non Financial Entity), or that holds 50% or more of its assets in shares, bonds or similar investment assets. For the purposes of the Common Reporting Standard, an investment entity residing in a Non-Participating Jurisdiction and managed by another Financial Institution is also treated as Passive NFE for purposes of the Common Reporting Standard.
- Resident for Tax purposes Generally an entity will be resident for tax purposes in a jurisdiction if it pays or should be paying tax by reason of its domicile, residence, place of management or incorporation or other criterion of similar nature, and not only from sources in that jurisdiction.

An entity such as partnership or similar legal arrangement that has no residence for tax purposes (e.g. because it is fiscally transparent) shall be treated as resident in the jurisdiction in which its place of effective management is situated. For more information required for Australian residents refer to www.ato.gov.au/CRS, and for other jurisdictions refer to the OECD

portal at www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/

TIN or Functional Equivalent means Taxpayer Identification Number or a functional equivalent in the absence of a TIN. A TIN is a unique combination of letters or numbers assigned by a jurisdiction to an individual or an entity and used to identify the individual or entity for the purposes of administering the tax laws of such jurisdiction.

For U.S. tax residents, the TIN may be the Social Security Number (SSN), or in the absence of an SSN, the TIN may be the individual tax number issued by the IRS. For non individual entities, it is the Employer Identification Number.

U.S. Person means a U.S. citizen or resident individual, a partnership or corporation organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or any State thereof, a trust if (i) a court within the United States would have authority under applicable law to render orders or judgments concerning substantially all issues regarding administration of the trust, and (ii) one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or an estate of a decedent that is a citizen or resident of the United States. Refer to the U.S. Internal Revenue Code for further interpretation.
